

Dear Hospitality Volunteers:

For December 2011- March 2012

Somehow we skipped Fall, because we just came back from the East coast where they had their very early snow storm. The change of leaves was beautiful until we added white (snow) to the fall colors. It got really cold for me, so we found an earlier flight to come home.

Our new Hospitality schedule is here. Please note, once again, that I left the names on the same places, but changed the dates only. Also please notice that there will be no Hospitality on December 4, due to the Giving Wreath event taking place in the kitchen.

God Bless You, Lidia Samoian
