STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

In today’s Gospel, the disciples suggest that Jesus disperse the crowd so that they might individually seek food and lodging. The miracle of the feeding of the five thousand is Jesus’ powerful reminder that when we share our gifts in His name there is always more than enough!

Catholic Action Principles

Don't Be A Perfectionist

Two things you should know about God. One, there is a God. Two, you re not God. Trying to be perfect takes too much time and effort. It creates too much stress and is impossible anyway. Instead, strive to relax at the 90% level. This is the personal mastery level. Following the Catholic Action Principles[®] and living the Catholic faith, reaching the 90% level in most of our financial and social endeavors will be something that you don't even have to think about. It will happen through your persistence, determination, hard work and nice personality.

Right now, learn about the income and the lifestyle level of those in the top 10% of your profession. If you aren't content earning more than 90% of your co-workers, choose another profession.

It is possible to try too hard in business, exercise and relationships. Overwork can produce stress and anxiety, which is the opposite of the inner pear you seek. Your best is good enough. Live to a high standard, not to an impossible obsession

-Bill FitzPatrick.

Adopt a Priest with Prayer

This ministry, begun at St. Mary's parish in 1996, continues to pray for he priests of the Oakland Diocese. Priests have a divine Mission but they are also very human and daily face the problems and struggles common to all of us. They have a great need of our support in prayer, love and concern. If you would be willing to pray each day during the current year for an individual priest of the Oakland Diocese, please send your name and address to Alice Osterman, 10 Pueblo Ct., Alamo, CA 94507 or phone (925)935-0461. Alice will mail the name of a priest for you. No meetings, no dues, just prayer!

Nurses Notes

What is Asthma

Part 2 - Types of Asthma

What type of asthma do you think you have? Asthma is often put into categories or groups based on the triggers or situations that cause asthma symptoms. But no matter what type of asthma you may have, the right treatment plan may help prevent symptoms. Talk to your doctor about the right plan for you.

ALLERGIC ASTHMA

Allergic asthma is triggered by an allergic reaction to allergens such as pollen or pet dander. If you have allergic asthma, you probably have a personal and/or family history of allergies, such as allergic rhinitis or hay fever, and/or eczema (a skin problem resulting in itching, a red rash, and sometimes small blisters).

Keep in mind that one form of allergic asthma is seasonal asthma, which usually affects people in the spring or early autumn. For example, you may find that your asthma is worse in the spring when there is an increase in flowering plants, while others find their asthma is worse in the late summer or early fall due to ragweed or mold from leaves on trees.

Other triggers for allergic asthma include respiratory infections such as the common cold, the flu, or a sinus infection, as well as exercise, cold air, sudden changes in air temperature, and even gastroesophageal reflux (heartburn).

NONALLERGIC ASTHMA

Your asthma may be triggered or made worse by one or more nonallergic asthma triggers, including substances (irritants) in the air, such as tobacco smoke, wood smoke, room deodorizers, pine odors, fresh paint, household cleaning products, cooking odors, perfumes, and outdoor air pollution. People with nonallergic asthma may have the same symptoms as those with allergic asthma, but they are not bothered by allergens from the natural world like pollen or mold.

Next Week: Part 3 – Types of Asthma – Cont'd

PLEASE- Remember to use the phone in the office or at the AV area in the hall and not a cell phone to call 911. Your cell phone will reach Sacramento CHP and precious time will be wasted.

Need Your Unwanted Cell Phones

Anna Piazza & the Vacation Bible School are collecting your unwanted and outdated cell phones as a fund raiser. All of the proceeds will be used to help those injured in Haiti. They will be buying wheelchairs through the Wheel Chair Foundation. A box is being left in the foyer to collect the cell phones. Help them out in their first fund raiser. They are very impassioned about helping those injured in the earthquake. They need just the cell phone (make sure you remove the sim card), no accessories or cords.

2010 Bishop's Appeal

Thank you to all parishioners who have supported this year's Bishop's Appeal. To date we collected $2,618.38 in cash and pledges toward our parish goal of $15,134 or 17 % of our goal.

Help us Connect the World with God's Word!

Next week you will have the opportunity to participate in the Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. Collection proceeds support a wide variety of media projects that spread the gospel message and connect communities and individuals to their faith and to the Church. Please contribute generously in the collection, and visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections for more information. Remember, half of the collected funds stay right here to support diocesan media projects.
